

Barangay Road Lighting Maintenance Contract

Testing purpose: Page counting, navigation, stamping on every page, and version-chain testing.

Field	Value
Contract ID	QA-2026-0002
Project	Streetlight inspection and maintenance
Coverage	Six service zones

Service Condition 1

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 2

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 3

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 4

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 5

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 6

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 7

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 8

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 9

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 10

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 11

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 12

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 13

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 14

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.

Service Condition 15

The supplier shall provide the listed goods according to the approved schedule, technical specifications, inspection requirements, and applicable barangay procurement rules. Any variation must be documented and approved in writing before implementation.